Citi Appointed as Depositary Bank for Wiwynn Corporation's GDR Program

Citi's Issuer Services, acting through Citibank, N.A., has been appointed by Wiwynn Corporation ("Wiwynn"), a leading cloud IT infrastructure provider for hyperscale data centers, to act as Depositary Bank for its Global Depositary Receipt ("GDR") program.

Wiwynn's Global Depositary Shares ("GDSs") trade on the Luxembourg Stock Exchange under the ticker "WIWRP" for the Rule 144A GDSs and "WIWGP" for the Regulation S GDSs. Each GDS represents one (1) ordinary share. The initial public offering price is US$76.05 per GDS. The common shares are listed and traded on Taiwan Stock Exchange under the stock code 6669.

"We are delighted to expand our collaboration with Citi through the depositary bank appointment for our GDR program. Citi not only brings a proven track record as one of the leading depositary banks but also demonstrates a strong commitment to further developing the program for the ultimate benefit of our investors," said Harry Chen, CFO of Wiwynn Corporation.

"Citi's selection as depositary bank for Wiwynn's GDR program further underscores our cross-border capabilities. We are committed to leveraging our global network and capital markets expertise to provide Wiwynn's investors with the highest quality DR services," said Dirk Jones, Global Head of Issuer Services at Citi Securities Services.

Citi Issuer Services is a leading provider of depositary receipt services. With depositary receipt programs in 67 markets, spanning equity and fixed-income products, the business leverages its global network to provide cross-border capital market access to issuers, intermediaries, and investors.
