The Company has informed the Depository that it applied to the United Kingdom Financial Conduct Authority (the “FCA”) to list its GDSs that had previously been listed and traded on the LuxSE (including ATT Only GDSs) to instead trade on the LSE (the “LSE GDS Listing”). The Company has further informed the Depository that the FCA has approved the Company’s application to list its GDSs on the LSE and that the GDSs will commence trading on the LSE on February 13, 2025 (the “Effective Date of LSE GDS Listing”). It is expected that the GDSs will cease trading on the LuxSE from and after the Effective Date of the LSE GDS Listing. In connection with the LSE GDS Listing, the ATT Only GDSs will commence trading on the LSE from and after the Effective Date of LSE GDS Listing.

The Depositary is providing this notice to advise all holders of GDSs that from and after the Effective Date of LSE GDS Listing, the Depositary will consider applicable U.S., English, and Korean law in connection with any actions or transactions that the Company requests the Depositary to facilitate, or the Deposit Agreement contemplates, for the benefit of the holders of GDSs. The GDS CUSIP number for the GDSs that were listed on the LuxSE (including ATT Only GDSs) will remain unchanged and such CUSIP will continue to be the GDS CUSIP number for the GDSs listed on the LSE.

The Company has prepared a prospectus in connection with the LSE GDS Listing which has been approved by the FCA. A copy of the prospectus is available online on the Company’s website at <https://www.samsung.com/global/ir/>.

All information with respect to the LSE GDS Listing has been provided to the Depositary by the Company.

Holders and Beneficial Owners of GDSs should not rely on the Depositary as the sole source of information and are hereby instructed to consult their broker, financial intermediary, or legal or financial advisor for advice concerning their particular circumstances. The Depositary makes no recommendations and gives no investment, legal or tax advice as to the foregoing matters.
